

I would like to see less concentration of broadcast ownership in all markets. Allowing companies to control or dominate a single marketplace is anti-competitive and greatly deprives the public of access to a diversity of ideas and opinions.